

PRODUCE DURING HOLIDAY WEEK

2 Cents and Eggs Drop
Alligator Pears Reaching
Local Markets.

Butter and eggs dropped during holiday season, butter going from 55 cents a pound, while eggs fell from 60 to 57 cents a dozen. Storage eggs remain the same at 60 cents a dozen. Prices of other vegetables remain practically the same as those of the week.

Alligator pears, imported from the West Indies, are coming on the market this week. This is the first crop of these pears this season. They will replace the Florida alligator pears which are going off the market. The West Indian pears are $1 each while the Florida crop was 50 cents each. The alligator pear is about the size of a grapefruit, only much greener.

Market quotations for fruit this week are: Red Emperor grapes, 50 and 55 cents a pound; imported table grapes, 45 cents a pound; Florida navel oranges, 60 to 65 cents a dozen; California navel oranges, 50 to 60 cents a dozen; apples, 85 cents a dozen; grapefruit, two and three for 25 cents, and 15 cents each; Satsuma oranges, 40 cents a dozen; lemons, 50 cents a dozen.

Vegetable quotations this week follow: Brussels sprouts, 30 cents a quart; green beans, 45 cents a pound; California peas, 50 cents a pound; horseradish root, 15 cents a pound; garlic, 30 cents a pound; green onions, 10 cents a bunch; Hubbard squash, 25 and 40 cents each; Jersey sweet potatoes, three pounds for 25 cents; hot-house tomatoes, 35 cents a pound; cucumbers, 15 and 40 cents; leaf lettuce, 10 cents a pound; mushrooms, $1.25 a pound; beets, carrots and turnips, 10 cents a bunch, and celery, 10 and 15 cents a bunch.

Many Nuts Offered.

Pistachio nuts are $1 a pound; black walnuts, 10 pounds for 45 cents; Brazil nuts, 30 cents a pound; pecans, 45 cents a pound; Naples almonds, 40 cents a pound; hard-shelled almonds, 50 cents a pound; English walnuts, 55 cents a pound, and hickory nuts, 10 cents a pound.

Dates are 20 cents a pound; domestic figs, 15 cents for an 8-ounce package; imported figs, 60 cents a pound. Cluster raisins are 60 cents and $1 a pound.
